

Conditions for the award of the title „VDH Winner of the Year (annual winner)“:

The new title “VDH winner of the year (annual winner)” will be given at International dog shows in Germany.

The title “VDH winner of the year (annual winner)” will be given to dogs, which have been nominated for four CACIB certificates in one calendar year, at least two at different VDH exhibitions weekends (VDH Europe Winner show & International dog show / “Bundes” Winner show & International dog show / German Winner show & International dog show) and at last two at other international dog shows in Germany.

The title “VDH winner of the year (VDH annual winner)” entitles the dog to start in the champion class.

The VDH winner of the year will take part at the contest for the German dog of the year.
